

Once
upon
a time
there were two people

that were stuck on the planet
Mars

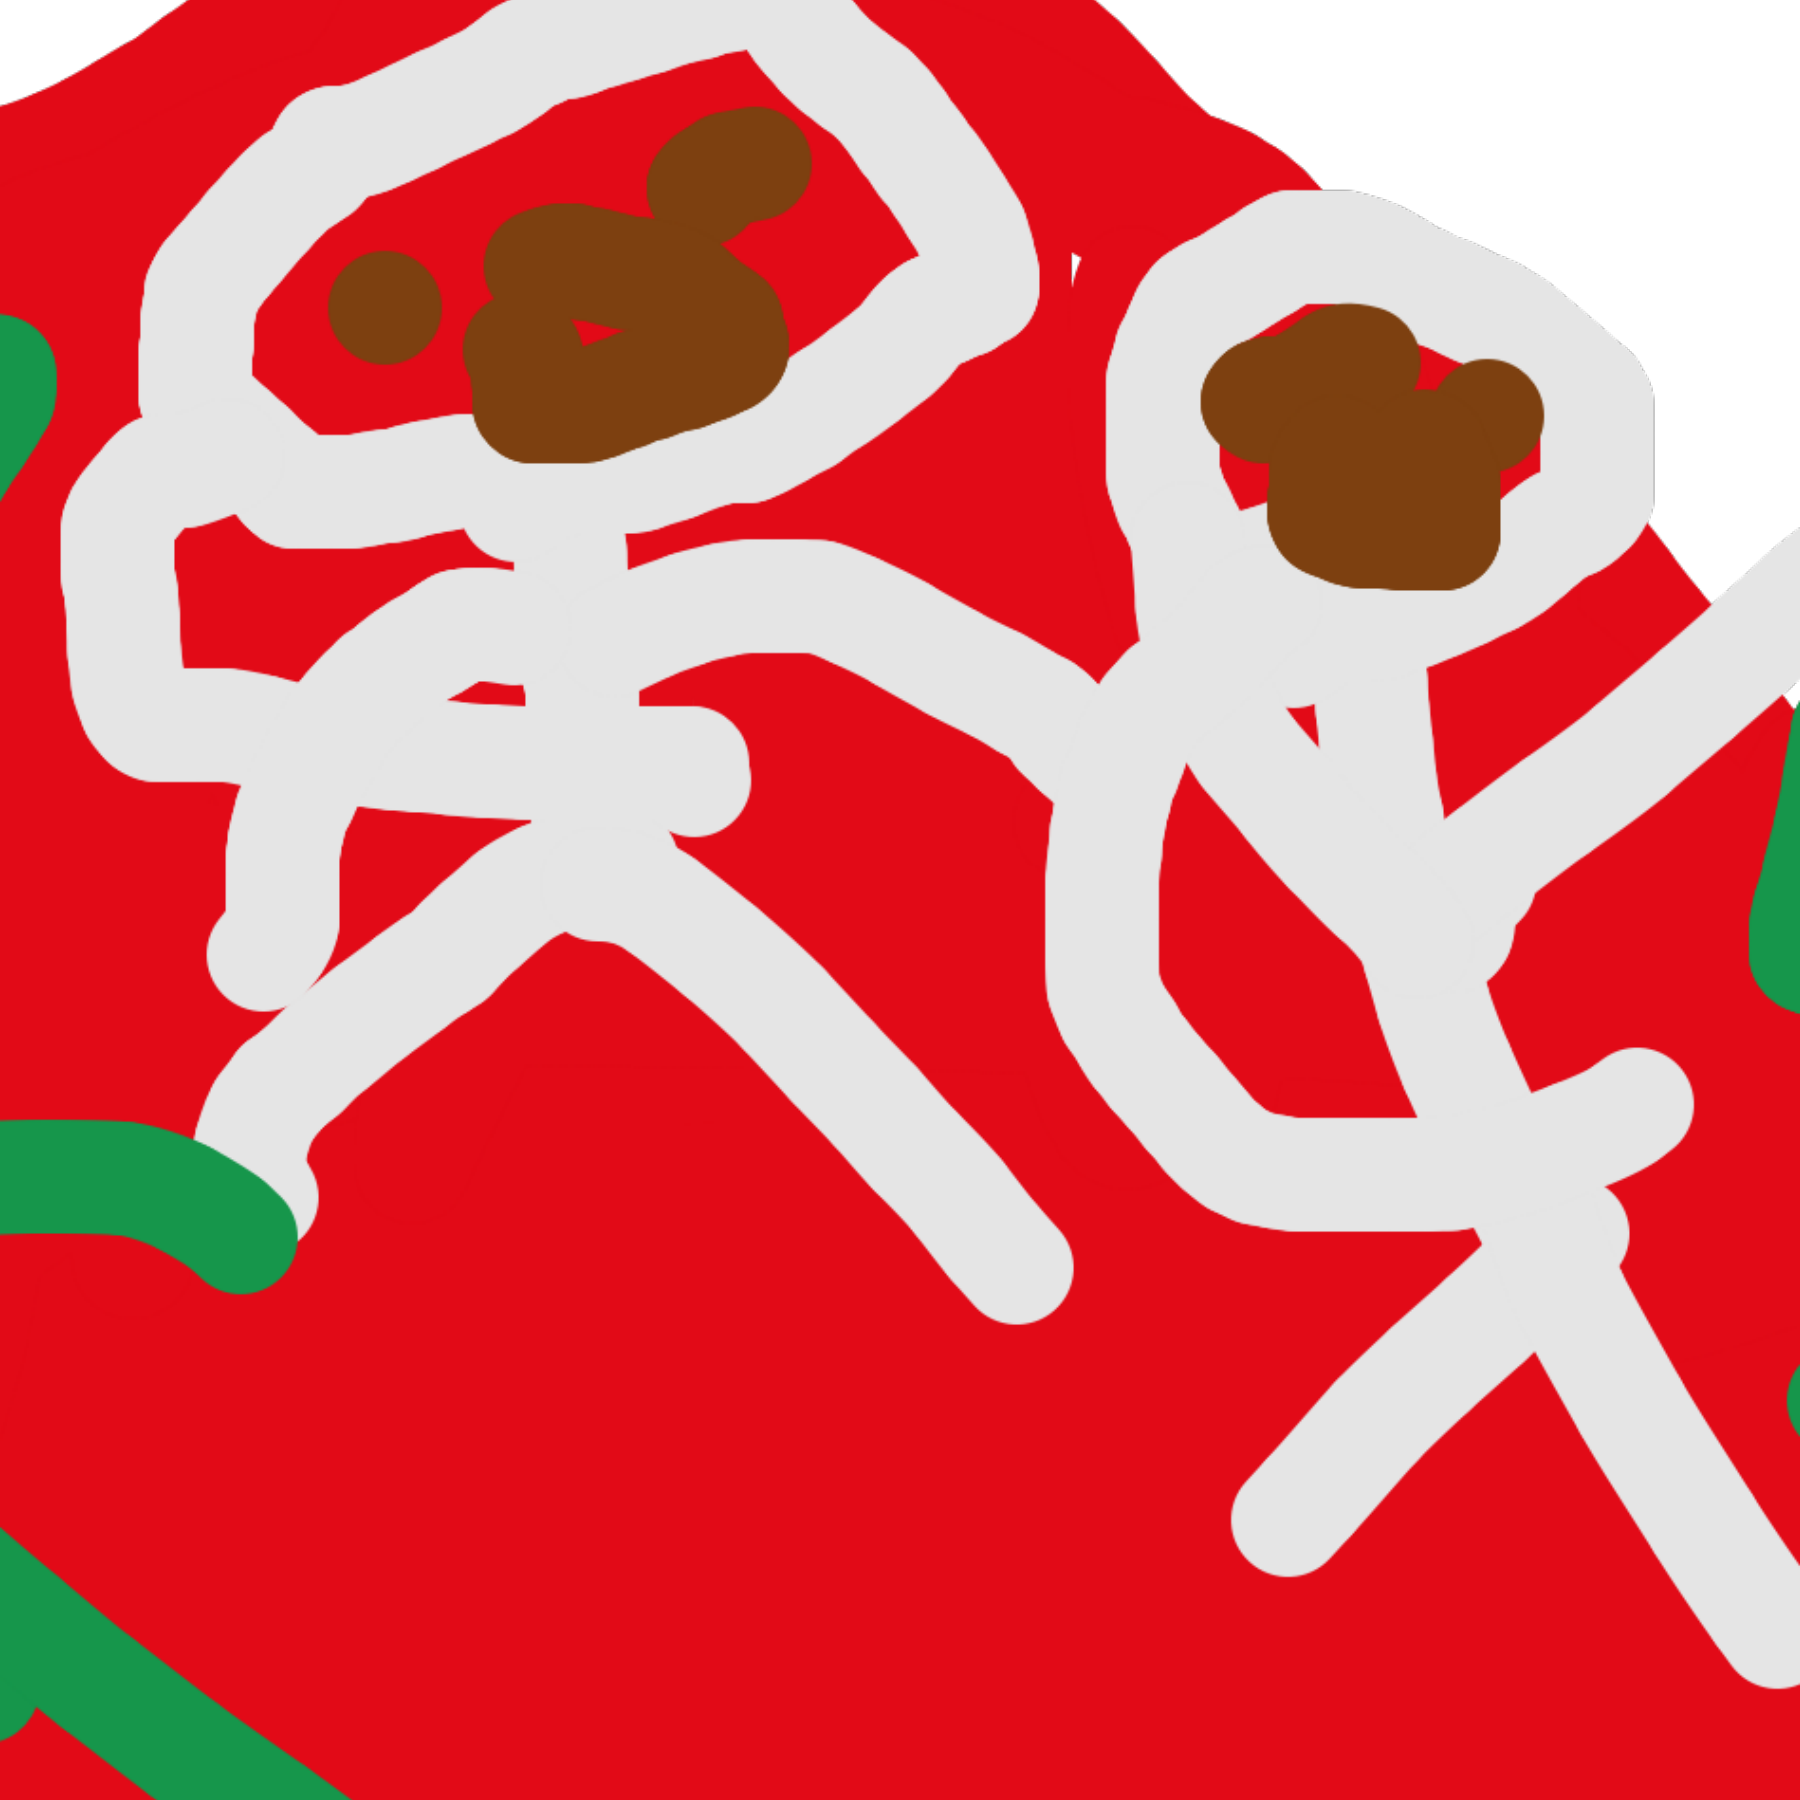

They
couldn't get home
because their

spaceship
was broken.
But then
they saw
green
aliens

They ran
as fast
as they could.

But then
they were surrounded!

But the aliens
were actually nice
guys and saw
their spaceship
crash and wanted
help.

So they build
the spaceship. So
then the people
wanted to ask if they wanted to come to Earth. The aliens
said "Yes!"

So the people
returned home
with the aliens.
And showed everyone
else the aliens.
The presidents
were amazed by the aliens! They gave them medals.
