

• The chimpmuck searches for a book

The chipmunk wants a book, but earth doesn't have any that he wants!

He traveled to mars...

But he didn't find anything!

Next was Jupiter, But he didn't have any time to look because he was getting chased by an alien!!

To speed things up, he rode in a race car.

Uranus has no books
he wants either!!

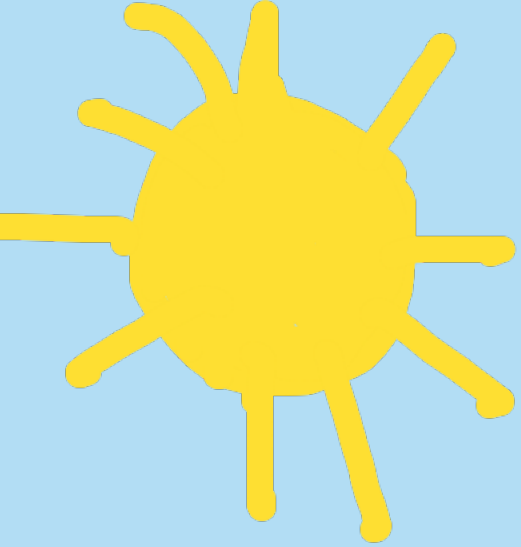

He spots a forest, maybe this has
the book?

He found it! Now he can go home.

He finally found the right book and now is reading it!
