

Hazel goes swimming

"Do you wanna go on a swimming vacation?"
Dad asks Hazel.

"Yes, I am just afraid of the ocean" Hazel said.

"It's okay I'll be there with you we go to the beach, then after we can stay at a hotel" Dad says. "Pack a bag we are leaving in a couple hours."

Hazel packed her clothes in her suitcase, then she walked to the kitchen to have lunch with her family and packed up the car for the roadtrip, and off they went.

Mom said “We’re half way there, we’ll be there soon”

“Ok” Hazel said “I am getting scared” and then Hazel saw her baby brother, Luke about to cry but Hazel was playing peekaboo with him to stop him from crying. Luke finally stoped crying. When Hazel got done with playing games with Luke the car was at the hotel.

“Let’s go find our room and unpack so we can head to the beach” Dad said.

Hazel and her family unpack they change into their swim suits and head to the beach. When they get there her parents and brother got in, they were swimming around and Hazel saw them having a lot of fun. She the realized the beach wasn't scary and got in the water and swam to her mom and dad. Hazel said "I love the water".
