

THE FOOD APOCALYPSE

WRITTEN BY FIONA & ILLUSTRATED BY ADA

Fiona and Ada were shopping for ice cream
at the grocery store when they heard a noise
coming from the TV

The news stated that there was a monster.
This monster was eating everything in its way. Fiona and Ada were scared...

Then they heard a loud...BANG!

“We need to save the food and the world!” Ada said.

“How do we do that?” Fiona asked.

“The monster ate so much food he became humongous and we need to make him small again. If we feed him broccoli he’ll become broccoli because that’s his weakness. Then, he won’t terrorize humans and eat all the food.

“Hey Monster! Are you hungry? Here’s some broccoli!” Fiona and Ada shouted in unison.

The monster turned its scale covered head.
Its neon yellow eyes stared into the girls'.
They were afraid but they knew what needed to be done.

The girls clenched handfuls of broccoli and threw them into the monster's slimy mouth.

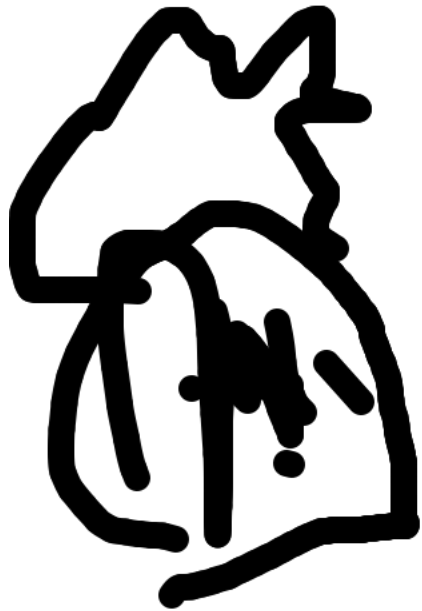

The monster swallowed the vegetables and roared. The monster was disgusted by the food and the girls watched as he began to shrink. He became smaller and smaller until he could fit in the girls hands. His tiny body morphed into a piece of broccoli. The girls stomped on the piece of broccoli until it was flattened against the floor.

As they exited the grocery store crowds erupted in applause and cheers. Fiona and Ada were heroes.

Among the rubble was a slice of pizza that was beside the mashed broccoli. The broccoli slowly took the form of the monster and ate the pizza slice.

But the monster didn't realize the pizza had broccoli on it all along. So the monster stayed a piece of broccoli forever and ever.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Fiona & Ada

Fiona is fourteen years old, her favorite color is pink, and her favorite season is fall. And she enjoys writing!

Ada is six years old, her favorite color is green, and her favorite season is summer. And she enjoys reading!