BELOIT: Will most likely be going fine free for JUV/YA on April 5. School pictures taken through an American Family grant are available this week so kids have been coming in to pick them up. Trying a Pilot Project in April with PBS. This will be outreach to Head Start families with children ages 4-8, meeting every Monday night in April

EAGER FREE: Staff are starting to be vaccinated. Board approved “phase 3” reopening at the February meeting. 3 days per week open for browsing / 3 days per week for appointments and curbside pickup. At February meeting the board approved going fine free on all items until the end of the year. Well received by the city council and board.

CLINTON: Exploring ways to bring back their reading and gaming groups. Using a WiFi hotspot and meeting outdoors at a local restaurant with an open space and access to bathroom.

HEDBERG: Friends book sale this weekend. Lots of applicants for Public Services Assistant II positions. Anticipate hiring 2 people soon and potential for others this summer. Still open just 1 evening per week. They’ve had some success with interactive virtual “Fan Club” meetings. Lots of NEA Big Read events coming up. Offering kids packets for National Ag Day.

ORFORDVILLE: Continuing indoor programming – Storytime and Women’s Book Club. Planning Summer Reading Program with theme of “Reading is Jawsome” – outside programs during the month of July. This is similar to what’s been done successfully in the past. OPL will participate in Market Days on June 12. No Friends group golf outing or pancake breakfast this year.
